

ADVICE INFORMATION

If you have any concerns about your or your child's health and wellbeing, we recommend that you talk to your health visitor or GP. You can also find general health advice on the NHS website (www.nhs.uk). Here are some other websites and numbers you may find useful for advice on the range of issues included in the study.

General advice

The Department for Education provides a useful website that can help you find a whole range of sources of support and information in your local area, including:

- activities for babies, toddlers, young people, parents and carers
- support for parents and carers, such as with children's health, care and development
- support with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND)
- help with mental health, relationships, money, housing or family life

For more information, please see <https://www.find-support-for-your-family.education.gov.uk/>

Parenting support - Action for Children. Action for Children protects and supports children and young people, providing practical and emotional care and support. Visit their website: <https://www.actionforchildren.org.uk/>

Parenting support - Early Years Alliance. The Early Years Alliance website has information about the 30 hours funded early education entitlement plus Family Time Tips — free play ideas, and guidance on choosing an early years setting. Visit their website: <https://www.eyalliance.org.uk/parents>

Family Lives provides support for all elements of family life. Call the free helpline on 0808 800 2222 (Mon-Fri 9am-9pm, Sat-Sun 10am-3pm), or visit the website www.familylives.org.uk to find advice on a range of aspects including sleep, health, development, and bonding with your baby.

Home-Start helps families through sending trained volunteers to visit and offer compassionate support to parents. Find your local Home-Start here www.home-start.org.uk/find-your-nearest-home-start.

Gingerbread supports single parents via online resources, forums and local support groups. Find out more at www.gingerbread.org.uk, or call their free helpline for single parents at 0808 802 0925 (Mon 10am-6pm, Tues/Thurs/Fri 10am-4pm, Wed 10am-1pm & 5pm-7pm).

Each local authority in England has an online Family Information Service, with local information and advice for parents. Search Family Information Service plus your local authority to find out more.

Your child's wellbeing and development

For advice on how to develop your child's speech, reading and communication skills, visit:

- I CAN at www.icancharity.org.uk or telephone 020 7843 2544 to reach the free, confidential call-back or email enquiries@ican.org.uk for service from an I CAN speech and language therapist.
- Words for Life at www.wordsforlife.org.uk (online service only).
- National Literacy Trust at <https://literacytrust.org.uk/> has resources and tools for early language development and parental engagement.
- NHS.uk (online service only) has advice on how to help your child's speech from age 0 to 3 years at www.nhs.uk/conditions/baby/babys-development/play-and-learning/help-your-baby-learn-to-talk

The NHS website (<https://www.nhs.uk/>) has advice and information about a variety of topics, including feeding your child, looking after your child's teeth, autism (<https://www.nhs.uk/conditions/autism/>) and developmental delay or learning disabilities (<https://www.nhs.uk/conditions/learning-disabilities/>).

For advice and information about your child's sleep, please see the tips on the NHS website www.nhs.uk/conditions/baby/health/sleep-problems-in-young-children.

Financial support

Your local Citizens Advice Bureau (CAB) can offer independent advice on a range of issues including housing, debt and consumer issues. You can find out more, at www.citizensadvice.org.uk <http://www.citizensadvice.org.uk/>. To speak to someone about money issues, call CAB's national phone service - Adviceline on 0800 144 8848.

Healthy Start provides financial support to buy healthy food and milk. Eligibility for the scheme includes pregnant women (at least 10 weeks into pregnancy) and families with a child under 4 years old claiming certain benefits. Visit www.healthystart.nhs.uk to see if you qualify.

The Trussell Trust offers guidance for those in a financial crisis. Call the free helpline on 0808 208 2138 (Mon-Fri 9am-5pmM). To find your local foodbank, visit www.trusselltrust.org/get-help/find-a-foodbank.

Childcare Choices is a government scheme offering parents help with childcare costs. Visit www.childcarechoices.gov.uk to find out what help you may be eligible for.

Smoking, alcohol and drug abuse

For help quitting smoking, the NHS provides guidance on its website www.nhs.uk/better-health/quit-smoking, where you can also identify your local Stop Smoking Service. You can call the Smokefree National Helpline on 0300 123 1044 to speak to a trained advisor (Mon-Fri 9am-8pm, Sat-Sun 11am-4pm).

Drinkaware www.drinkaware.co.uk offers help to anyone worried about their own or someone else's drinking. Call the free alcohol helpline, Drinkline, on 0300 123 1110 (Mon-Fri 9am-8pm, Sat-Sun 11am-4pm), or use the online chat service, Drinkchat, on the website (Mon-Fri 9am-2pm).

Talk to FRANK offers free confidential advice on drugs and alcohol. You can email, text (on 82111), phone on 0300 123 6600 (24-hour helpline), or get advice via webchat at www.talktofrank.com/livechat

Safety and mental health

If you are concerned about domestic violence, women can contact Refuge on the free 24-hour National Domestic Violence Helpline 0808 2000

247. Support for men can also be found by contacting ManKind on 0182 3334 244 (Monday to Friday, 10am to 4pm), and those who identify as LGBT+ can call Galop on 0800 999 5428 for emotional and practical support.

Mind provides advice on a range of mental health problems, including the types of mental health problem; where to get help; medication and alternative treatments; and advocacy. Visit www.mind.org.uk or phone 0300 123 3393 (9am-6pm, Mon-Fri).

Young Minds. For advice on children and young people's mental health, please visit Young Minds at <https://youngminds.org.uk/>, or call their Parents Helpline on 0808 802 5544 (9.30am-4pm, Mon-Fri).

NHS Talking therapies. You can access NHS talking therapies services for anxiety and depression. Visit the webpage: www.nhs.uk/service-search/mental-health/find-an-NHS-talking-therapies-service/

The Samaritans provide confidential support for people experiencing feelings of distress or despair. Freephone: 116 123 (24-hour helpline), or visit their webpage: <https://www.samaritans.org/>

If you have any concerns about your or your child's safety and mental health, we recommend that you talk to your health visitor or GP. You can also find general health advice on the NHS website (www.nhs.uk).

Bereavement and loss

Cruse Bereavement Support: provides support for all types of bereavement or grief. Website: <https://www.cruse.org.uk/>. Helpline: 0808 808 1677

Child Bereavement UK: families can find help to rebuild their lives when a child grieves or when a child dies. Website: <https://www.childbereavementuk.org/>. Helpline: 0800 02 888 40